

The Association of Information Technology Professionals Region 18

presents

Sleuthing in the 21st Century

An educational retreat for Information Technology Professionals hosted by AITP Akron Chapter

Saturday, October 20, 2007
Kozmo's Grille, Massillon, Ohio

Join IT professionals and students from a five state area for a full day of education built around our theme: Sleuthing in the 21st Century.

Confirmed speakers and topics include:

Dr. Robert Smith, Emeritus Professor of Management and Leadership at Kent State University presenting our Luncheon Keynote: "Leading the Battle to Protect our Information Infrastructure"

Mr. Ernie Campbell, Certified Trainer and Networking Consultant at Solutient Corporation of Ohio presenting "Ethical Hacking" and "Computer Hacking Forensics"

Ms. Cheryl Zimmer, Project Manager at Sterling Jewelers presenting "Professional Project Management Workshop"

Mr. Ken States, Information Systems Specialist at TruCut Incorporated presenting "Biometrics 101"

Ms. Lynn Basconi, CPA, a Senior Manager in the Management Advisory Services Department of Ciuni & Panichi CPAs and Business Advisors presenting "Forensic Accounting"

For up-to-date information on speakers, schedules, registration, hotels, and area attractions visit our Web site at <http://www.akron-aitp.org/retreat>.

For information on the Association of Information Technology Professionals, visit our national organization Web site at <http://www.aitp.org>.

aitp-Region18.org

